Unit IV: Library Orientation

Understandings/Focus Questions	Content	Skills/Standards	Assessment	Differentiation
1. What is the proper way to use the library to conduct subject specific research? 2. How do we use key words to find original research articles?	1. Data Base Searches 2. Library Orientation and Online Data Searches (Facilitated by Librarian)	1. Data Base Searches • Students will learn how to develop key words for their data base searches to find articles for their literature reviews. 2. Library Orientation and Online Data Searches (Facilitated by Librarian) • Identify the online databases you can use for research • Find primary articles for literature review • Cite some shortcomings of online searches Rl.11-CCR.3 Rl.11-CCR.4 Rl.11-CCR.7 Rl.11-CCR.10 W.11-CCR.2 W.11-CCR.3 W.11-CCR.5	Products • Log/journal • Primary Articles for Literature Review • Typed References of Articles Used to Write Literature Review Student Self-Assessment • Teacher-made prompts for reflection • Bell Ringers • Discussion (whole-class or small group) • Self-evaluation • Peer-evaluation	• Use small groups or individual learning • Peer tutoring • Organize content delivery in different ways • Use guided or teacher notes • Cue students to remain on task • Give directions in simplified language • Use flowcharts and graphic organizers • Allow movement to increase physical comfort • Provide correctives measures to ensure mastery of material

Understandings/Focus Questions	Content	Skills/Standards	Assessment	Differentiation
		W.11-CCR.6 W.11-CCR.7 W.11-CCR.8 W.11-CCR.9 W.11-CCR.10 SL.11-CCR.1 SL.11-CCR.2 SL.11-CCR.6 L.11-12.2 L.11-12.4 L.11-12.6 Next Gen Engineering Technology, & Application of Science		